TAFT ON THE PHILIPPINES.

Noble Address Before Harvard Law School.

Convincing Explanations for Timid Bostonians.

Natives not Ready for Self-Government Yet.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) June 28.—Members of the Harvard Law School assembled here today for the first general meeting since 1896. The occasion was also of special significance because attended by the prominent statesman, Mr. Taft. The secretary of the association, Mr. Taft, accepted an invitation to deliver the oration, and Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court presided. The members of the association assembled in front of Austin Hall and marched to the law school where the exercises took place. The annual business session Chief Justice Fuller, '55, was elected president of the association. Among the presidents chosen are Richard Oliver, '53, of Massachusetts; Oliver Wendell Holmes, '54, of the Supreme Court of the United States; George Gray, '53, of Delaware; Justice of the United States Circuit Court; Edward O. Wilcott, '75, of Colorado; Robert T. Lincoln, '63, of Illinois. Secretary of War Taft was unanimously elected an honorary member of the association.

In introducing Secretary Taft, Chief Justice Fuller said: "To a man who comes to us with a marked success in a political career, the association extends a hearty welcome." Mr. Taft discussed the relation of the United States to the Philippines from nearly every point of view, reviewing events in the islands from the time when their disposition was left an open question in the protocol of 1898 to the present day, and declaring his belief as to the future.

"Could we have given the islands back to Spain?" asked Mr. Taft. "With our consent, and indeed, at our instance, and with arms furnished by us, Aguinaldo had an army, which assisted us in invading Manila and in his capture, and which, during the suspension of hostilities, had gone on driving the Spaniards out of their interior posts. We were, in a sense, allies of Aguinaldo and his followers, united for the purpose of driving Spain out of the Philippines, and they were under our protection, and we were to suppress their rebellion by force."

"No AGREEMENT MADE." "Could we have taken the islands from Spain and then have turned them over to Aguinaldo and his government? We were under obligations to do so," inquired the speaker. Replying to his own questions, Mr. Taft referred to Aguinaldo's claim that Admiral Dewey agreed, on behalf of the United States, that this country would acquiesce in the independence of the islands. In refutation, he cited the denial of Admiral Dewey and Consul Pratt and Wildman that any such agreement or promise had been made, and said that a document has now come to light, signed by Aguinaldo, Aguinaldo's secretary of state, containing secret instructions to two envoys in respect to negotiations with Gen. Otis, in which occur the statements that the United States and Aguinaldo had made no agreement, but had merely united with a common purpose to drive Spain out of the islands.

Aguinaldo knew, the speaker declared, that it was for the government of Washington to decide what was to be done with the islands. A fair review of the evidence showed that Aguinaldo was not misled and that the United States and United States to turn over the islands was "not the act of perfidy and treachery which certain of our citizens at one time seemed to delight in calling it."

Mr. Taft sketched Aguinaldo's career up to the present time, reviewing his relations with Admiral Dewey and relating the circumstances of the signing of Manila, the founder of the Katipunan Society, and of Antonio Luna, the present leader.

"The persons in this country who have incited Aguinaldo have indignantly repelled the charges that Aguinaldo compassed those two deaths," continued Mr. Taft, "but one must say that moral evidence is very strong against him."

SAT IN CABINET FOR LAST TIME.

KNOX AND CORTELYOU TAKE LEAVE OF ASSOCIATES.

Messrs. Metcalf and Moody Expected to Take Oath of Office Friday. While Mr. Morton Probably Will not Assume His New Duties Until Monday—Capital Notes.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. WASHINGTON, June 28.—Attorney Gen. Knox and Secretary of Commerce Cortelyou took leave of their cabinet associates at today's meeting. Their successors, Secretary Moody and Victor H. Metcalf, are expected to take the oath of office Friday, the beginning of the new fiscal year. Paul Morton, Secretary of the Navy's successor in the Navy Department, probably will not assume the duties of his office until next Monday.

Mr. Cortelyou, while he leaves the Cabinet in taking up the duties of chairman of the Republican National Committee, will remain in close touch with the President and the Cabinet. Secretary Dwyer will have headquarters at the Arlington Hotel. Campaign headquarters will be opened in Chicago and St. Louis on August 1, but it is not expected that the campaign work will be in full operation before September 1.

LONGEST WIRELESS CIRCUITS. NAVY DEPARTMENT'S QUEST. BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. WASHINGTON, June 28.—Admiral Manny, Chief of the Naval Equipment Bureau, today entered into an agreement with Abraham White, president of the American DeForest Wireless Telegraph Company for the acquisition of the navy of five longest wireless circuits in the world up to this date, two of them being over 1000 miles in length. They are Key West to Panama, 1000 miles; Porto Rico to Key West, 1000 miles; South Cuban coast to Panama, 720 miles; Pensacola to Key West, 450 miles; South Cuba to Porto Rico, 600 miles.

The enormous value of wireless telegraph in naval operations, as revealed by Admiral Togo's last exploit off Port Arthur, has hastened the Navy Department to conclude this contract.

WASHINGTON NOTES. Chief Clerk Taylor Resigns. WASHINGTON, June 28.—Blaine W. Taylor of West Virginia, Chief Clerk of the Postoffice Department, will resign that office July 20, to take effect August 30, and will be succeeded by Merritt C. Chance of Illinois, now Chief of the Division of Postoffice Supplies and recently private secretary of the Secretary of War. Mr. Taylor is a Democrat.

Wireless Station on Farallones. WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Navy Department has received permission from the Department of Commerce and Labor to establish a wireless telegraph station on Farallones Island, off San Francisco, and has arranged to equip a station at once.

URUGUAYAN SLAUGHTER. Government Forces and Revolutionists Clash and Kill Each Other off Montevideo. BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. BUENOS AIRES, June 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The New York Herald's correspondent at Bage, a Brazilian town near the Uruguayan frontier, reports that a courier sent by Saravia has arrived there with the report of a battle at Tupamba, Uruguay. Fighting began Wednesday of last week, and continued the following day.

The government forces had 600 killed and 800 wounded, while the revolutionists suffered 100 killed and 400 wounded. The revolutionists captured big quantities of war supplies.

Another dispatch from Bage says the rear of the revolutionary forces under Mariano Saravia, brother of the leader of the revolution, is pursuing the government troops under Benavente. The revolutionists occupy an excellent position.

AIRSHIP GASHED. Vandal with Grudge Against Santos Dumont Gets in His Work at World's Fair. BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. ST. LOUIS, June 28.—Some time during the night the bag of Santos Dumont's airship at the World's Fair grounds was cut and slashed in such a manner as to preclude all possibility of its being repaired in time to allow an ascension July Fourth. There are at least twelve long rents in the bag, and Prof. Carl Meyer, who has charge of the aeronautical contests, today said that it will take at least two weeks to repair the damage.

The big gas bag had not yet been taken from the crate in which it came.

The play "Lady Elizabeth," period action 1525-1550, was brought strictly up to date by the senior A. class of the Los Angeles High School at the dress rehearsal at the Mason Opera-house yesterday afternoon.

"Bloody Mary" was never in her palmer half so queenly or commanding as handsome Miss Edna Hutton, who takes this part and whose clear-cut enunciation is a good recommendation for the play.

"The Lady Elizabeth," who wins one's sympathy for her beauty and for her estate, is presented by Miss Edna Hutton. She is the beloved of "The White Rose" of England, and herein the play departs a bit from truth and the plot hangs on the woman's jealousy between the two queenly sisters.

"The White Rose" of England, and herein the play departs a bit from truth and the plot hangs on the woman's jealousy between the two queenly sisters.

Gardiner in the scarlet robes of his bishopric does some good bits of acting. Plummer Hutton, taking the part of this hated Lord Chancellor and bishop.

The first scene is the throne room in St. James's Palace, with all the statey pageant of the court sitting through which Queen Mary makes a royal progress. Act II, scene 1, shows the Queen's oratory, St. James's. Scene 2, still in Elizabeth's manor house of Ashbridge. Act III shows the lieutenant's garden in the tower, and in act IV poor Elizabeth is in the tower, bidding farewell to her lover, Sir Edward Courtenay. This is the prettiest scene of all and there are some realistic bits of love-making in this in which Miss Edna Hutton shows to great advantage. In the last scene of all one has the satisfaction of seeing the cruel Mary die off before she signs her sister's death warrant and Elizabeth is proclaimed Queen amid the tumultuous joy of all concerned.

The full cast of characters, who will give the play Thursday afternoon under the direction of Miss Marian G. Hutton, is as follows:

Sid Edward Courtenay, Earl of Devonshire ("The White Rose") Melvyn Martin; Gardiner (Bishop of Winchester and Lord Chancellor) Plummer Hutton; Simon Renard (Spanish envoy) Harold Hutton; Sir John Harrington (Lady Elizabeth's friend) Hazel A. Newson; Duchess of Norfolk, J. Marie Preston; Cicely (daughter to Rutter) Agnes G. Barnwell; maid of honor, Queen's women, ladies of the court, nobles, citizens, yeomen of the guard, retainers of Elizabeth, warders, etc.

GONE TO SMASH HAS THE PAINTERS' UNION.

ONE month ago the kettle of the Painters and Paper Hangers' Union was boiling over with strikes and boycotts. The union bosses were not going to allow a shingle or weather-board to be touched with the color brush, no, not if moss should grow on the eaves or the woodwork crack in the heat of the sun. Not a yard of paper was to be hung.

Today the kettle is dead, with a hard coat of discontent and failure on the bottom, and the union, which once had 600 members, is about to be relegated to the scrap heap. The men who still circle around the totem are out of jobs and find little satisfaction in adding up the fines of painters and paper hangers who refused to strike—fines of $100 per man, and amounting to several thousand dollars, but fines which no agency nor court of law can collect.

"The strike has been an utter failure," said A. A. Eckstrom, president of the Wall Paper Dealers' Association, yesterday. "There is not a union painter shop or paper house in the city, and we all have our full quota of men. The boycott which the union called on my establishment and other wall-paper dealers has acted as a boomerang on the strikers in that when they tried to get work they were told that if they could not get it at the houses which had been boycotted they could not get it at all. The union in turn has been boycotted. While the shops are now open in the true sense of the word, there are many of the contractors and dealers who are carrying the matter still further. Instead of simply asking a man if he wants work and is willing to receive the pay of the present wage scale, some are now asking, 'Do you belong to a union?'"

"When the strike was called I had this union men working here. Only three of them went out. The other six who remained have been fined $100 each for breaking with the union. Resignations have been sent back by most of them, instead of the cash, and the rest were expelled. At that time there were 150 union paper hangers working in the stores of this city. Only twenty-five of them struck. The union then demanded $7100 from the other seventy-one men, but not one cent has ever been paid."

The paper hangers and the painters were allied in the same union, and the case of the painters has been the same as that of the hangers.

Last Friday the boss of the union walked down to a house on Olive street, which was being painted, and ordered the men to strike. A hurried consultation was held by two of the brush wielders in a back room and shortly after one of them came forward and said that the men would strike. The smiling delegate asked the spokesman to go around the corner for a drink and about twenty minutes afterward he returned to find his house locked up and all the blinds pulled down. The delegate walked away happy. Meanwhile all the painters except the one who had gone for the drink were painting the woodwork as fast as they could inside and later the other man returned and was admitted by the back door. The place was kept locked and the front shades drawn for two days before the trick was discovered. All the painters were then fined and later expelled from the union. Now the walking delegate has not a single union job in the city to covet.

King Edward paid his promised visit to Hamburg yesterday, and met with a most cordial reception from authorities and big crowds of inhabitants.

NEW COMPANY FOR THE GUARD.

TO REPLACE ONE MUSTERED OUT AT SANTA ANA.

Where Will Its Home Be?—Orange County Citizens to Get up the Required Petition and Brig-Gen. Wankowski Will Make Recommendation to Division Headquarters.

Gen. Wankowski has a militia company to give away and is looking for a worthy home where it will be kindly received and cherished as one of the family.

It is the sequel of a gorgeous row of some sort, concerning which the military laws are locked.

Last night Gen. Wankowski was called upon by an influential Santa Ana man who asked that the town be allowed another chance to have a militia company to replace Co. L, recently mustered out of the service for insubordination.

It is understood that the Republican marching club of Santa Ana agree to furnish men to make up a new militia company.

It is solemnly promised that Lieut. Bishop, who was the indirect cause of Co. L's being mustered out, will not be in the east of characters if the general allows another company to be formed there.

It was because the company insisted upon electing Bishop after he had been refused a commission by the authorities that the company was mustered out.

Since 1898 the ax has been lingering over the head of Bishop, awaiting to descend with a whack.

The real cause of the present militia row is mostly a matter of history. It will be remembered that at the time of the Spanish-American War when the Seventh Regiment went to San Francisco to enter the service of the United States, several commissioned officers of the regiment were dropped out before the regiment was accepted by Uncle Sam.

Uncle Sam didn't care for one of the officers of the Santa Ana company and threw him out, whereupon the Santa Ana company, under the leadership of Clyde Bishop, then a corporal, refused to be mustered into the service. They stood up in a defiant bunch and said the regiment could go to war without them if the lieutenant were to be shorn of his stripes. In the end some sort of compromise was effected.

This has been held against Bishop for a long time, however. He got into another fuss at the time of the encampment at Long Beach two years ago. He again offended some of the powers at the time of the recent election in the regiment. He was considered a disturbing element.

The idea seems to be to reform the company minus Bishop and Bishop's sympathizers.

There will probably be other towns after the company.

Although, under the State law, the Governor, the adjutant-general and the major-general have the authority in the matter of locating new companies, Brig-Gen. Wankowski is called on for recommendations.

The Santa Ana enthusiasts will at once present a petition with fifty eligibles on it for a new company, and Gen. Wankowski has agreed to do all he consistently can to aid them.

The Bishop ax affair is in line with a general new policy to weed out the guard and to raise the standard.

Gen. Wankowski is gradually getting young business men of social standing and business responsibility into the shoulder straps as fast as vacancies occur. The purpose of this is to win for the militia more respect from business men and to make them feel that the public money spent on the citizen soldiery of this city is not being wasted.

Last night one of the "general's lieutenants" assumed the duties of his new position with Co. A. He is Prof. A. J. Comp. Jr., of the Los Angeles High School, who has been elected second lieutenant. He has already brought twenty quick-witted High School boys of good families into the company.

The finest equipments ever issued to the local guardsmen have just arrived from the government arsenal. The consignment includes a complete blacksmith shop packed into two leather cases for the cavalry troop, a complete harness maker's shop, among the things are curry combs, blankets, watering bridges, new uniforms, improved saddle bags. The infantry has received new tents and new uniforms.

Such lavish generosity has never been experienced by the guard before. That it is not play, however, is suggested by a new order requiring all National Guard organizations to keep on hand a certain specified number of loaded cartridges per man.

PRESBYTERIANS ON WEST ADAMS.

COMBINED CONGREGATION TO BUY SITE THERE.

Plans Adopted for a Fine Stone Edifice to Be Erected by Grand View Church and the Secessionists Who Refused to Sit Under Frank Dewitt Talmage.

Plans for a new church home to shelter the combined congregation of the Grand View Presbyterians and the body formed of the former members of the First Presbyterian Church who seceded last February on account of the calling of Rev. Frank Dewitt Talmage to that pulpit, have proceeded to the point of the selection of a site.

At a meeting last week to hear the report of a special committee appointed to recommend a site and building plans, it was decided, in accordance with the committee's report, to purchase 175 feet on the north side of Adams street, between Vermont avenue and Romeo street.

As soon as the Grand View property and building, at Vermont avenue and Twenty-third street, can be sold, a chapel will be built on the Adams street site to be replaced, under circumstances permit, by a fine stone edifice, plans and specifications for which have already been adopted.

The Grand View Church building is said to be entirely inadequate to accommodate the increasing congregation of Rev. A. G. Fessenden, and a move is becoming imperative.

SPORTING PAGE. COLLEGE MEN IN SHELLS.

Cornell the Winner of the Four-oared Race.

Syracuse Gets Eight-oared and Varsity Races.

Kaiser's Yacht First at Kiel. Hot Tacoma Game.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
POUGHKEEPSIE (N. Y.) June 28. (Exclusive Dispatch.) An extreme upset in the betting won the 'varsity' eight-oared race today, by two lengths, Cornell second, Pennsylvania third, Columbia fourth, Georgetown fifth, Wisconsin sixth, time 20:12 3-4.

Cornell was first in the four-oared 'varsity' race of two miles, by ten lengths, Columbia was second, Pennsylvania third, Wisconsin fourth and Georgetown fifth.

In the freshman eight-oared 'varsity' race of two miles, by three lengths, Cornell second, Pennsylvania third, Columbia fourth.

The easy victory of Syracuse in the grand event of the intercollegiate regatta was a great surprise. Cornell was a heavy favorite before the race.

The Syracuse crew was in good shape, and, pulling a steady stroke, maintained a good position. At a mile and a half, the race was between the up-state eight and Cornell.

The latter had a slight advantage, being a quarter of a length ahead. Syracuse was pulling a strong stroke, and at two miles forced the Cornell crew to a quarter of a length.

At the bridge, Syracuse, the thacans forged slightly ahead, cutting down Syracuse's lead to three-quarters of a length. At the bridge, Syracuse had spurted again finely, and put half a length of open water between her and Cornell.

Syracuse was fighting desperately. Syracuse was strong in the end, winning by the length. Rain was falling as the crews got off, but it dropped to a drizzle while the race was on.

Great crowds, brought in by special trains and boats, lined the banks of the river, and the air was split with the college yells of the winners.

Syracuse's second in the victory in the freshman eight was an easy one, by fully three lengths, in 10m. 53 3-4.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
POUGHKEEPSIE (N. Y.) June 28.—Cornell's rowing supremacy is broken. In the four-mile eight-oared 'varsity' race, the Syracuse crewmen won by handsome margins, coming out of obscurity so marked that last night the friends of Syracuse could not find the crew for bets at 1 to 1. Cornell won the four-oared 'varsity' race with ease.

Wisconsin, which was thought to threaten all competitors in the four-oared 'varsity' race, was never a factor, coming in next to last in the four-oared race and last in the 'varsity'.

Columbia, the 'dark horse,' whose mysterious doings have led to a great deal of speculation on the part of all competitors, did not enter the four-oared race as she came in second, though she made but a feeble showing in the other races, coming last in the freshman race and fourth in the 'varsity'.

No records were broken, indeed, the time was slower than for three years. What might have been done in the 'varsity' race had Cornell pushed Syracuse may be inferred from a statement of the Syracuse coxswain tonight, which he is quoted as saying that his men were prepared for a surprise from Cornell in the last part of the race, but they were not pressed in any part of the race.

The weather on the whole was not nearly perfect today for racing. Dashes of rain marred the enjoyment of the spectators somewhat, and a rather brisk southerly breeze toward the close of the day made the water somewhat rough, to which the slow time may be attributed.

The presence in the Cornell eight-oared boat of two men, the Foster couple, who had previously rowed in the four-oared event, added greatly to the interest of the great race of the day and led to alibations of her crew in their defeat at the hands of Syracuse, though the two men saved themselves to a great extent.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
THE VARSITY RIGHT.
Cornell led at the start, but almost immediately Syracuse pulled in the lead, with a strong stroke of 36 to the minute. For the first mile, the race was between Syracuse and Georgetown. At the half-mile Syracuse was leading. Cornell second, Georgetown third, All six miles, Syracuse was leading. At the first mile, Syracuse still led Cornell by a short half length. Pennsylvania, having passed Georgetown to third place, one and one-quarter lengths behind Cornell, Wisconsin soon began to gain after the first mile. At the two-mile mark, there were three races, Cornell and Syracuse bow for bow, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin in close contest for second place, and Georgetown and Columbia almost even for third place.

Syracuse at the two-mile mark was rowing a 33-stroke in splendid form. The third-place boat had pulled up finely. Georgetown had passed Wisconsin at the two-mile mark, and soon pulled up to third place, passing all except the leaders, but Pennsylvania again pulled ahead of her. There was open water between Syracuse and Cornell at the two-mile mark. After that Cornell's boat slowly drew up, Pennsylvania was third, Georgetown fourth, Wisconsin fifth, Columbia sixth. Nearing the bridge (3 miles) Syracuse was leading Cornell by about half a length. Pennsylvania and Wisconsin were pressing Pennsylvania hard for third place. Then came the struggle to the finish line.

of the Yosemite Club took a new tack yesterday and now asks that he be given a date in the name of his own club. The Shasta Club, through William A. Almon, its secretary and vice-president, wanted to challenge the Yosemite Club, presented a petition telling of the hard luck that had prevented holding the Jeffries-Munroe battle in June and calling attention to the expense which the club has already incurred without getting any return.

Two members of the Police Committee had recommended granting a permit to the Hays Valley Athletic Club, but the new phase of the question caused a postponement of the whole question. However, by next Monday evening, Coffroth will know whether his club will be able to bring off the contest between Jeffries and Munroe in August.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MRS. PERCY HOYLE of No. 705 West Twenty-eighth street was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a charming luncheon given to a number of her friends. The center of the table was decorated with a great cluster of pink bridelmaids roses, and each place was marked with a corsage bouquet of the same delicately tinted blossoms. Covers were laid for Mrs. James C. Drake, Mrs. Randolph Miner, Mrs. Mary W. Longstreet, Mrs. Rufus H. Herron, Mrs. Jack Griffith, Mrs. Margaret Hobbs, Mrs. Will E. Dunn, Mrs. Joseph F. Sartori, Mrs. Charles Monroe and Miss Carrie Waddilove.

Phelps-Simmonds Nuptials.

A marriage of more than passing interest was solemnized last evening when Miss Maude E. Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Phelps, became the bride of Frank Simmonds, the Rev. John L. Pinner officiating. The service took place in the Westlake Methodist Church, corner of Eighth and Burlington avenue and was witnessed by about two hundred friends. Under the direction of Mrs. Melville Dwyer, who is an intimate friend of the bride, the church was transformed into a floral bower. Fatted plants and ferns were banked in the choir loft and the railing was twined with asparagus plumosus. In the left were the members of the Theta Delta sorority of which the bride is a member. This bevy of young girls were like so many rose buds in their dainty gowns of white with wreaths in their hair. Over the thru room, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's friend, Miss F. M. Twomey of No. 843 Francisco street, Rev. Robert McIntyre performing the ceremony. Only a few intimate friends and relatives witnessed the service. The bride wore a gown of white oramide and carried white sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Ross have gone to Santa Ana where they will be at home at No. 713 East Pine street after July 6.

Pico Heights Wedding.

Last evening at 8 o'clock Miss Edith Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gregory, was married to Edward H. Greenfield, Rev. C. C. Pierce performing the ceremony. The affair took place at the home of the groom's parents at No. 1235 Jasmine street. Beneath a canopy of white tulle, and surrounded by papyrus, and sweet peas, the couple stood, while directly over their heads was a fragrant bell of sweet peas, lit with an electric light, which shed a soft glow over the party. The bride wore a white crepe de chine, trimmed with real lace, and carried white carnations. Over her face a soft veil fell. The maid of honor, Miss Juliet Greenfield, wore white mouseline de soie, with a touch of blue velvet and carried white sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Ella Hamilton. Two wedding marches were rendered, and during the ceremony "O Promise Me." The best man was N. Bowditch Blunt. The bride is a pretty blonde, and is well known in Pico Heights, and is the groom is connected with a local whole-sale drug concern. The ceremony took place after the ceremony for a wedding tour, after which they will be at home at No. 757 Clanton street.

Evening Wedding.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. No. 1916 West Seventeenth street, when their daughter, Miss Winifred F. Gould, became the bride of Thomas J. Masterson, Rev. E. W. Meany officiating. A canopy of asparagus plumosus with delicate trailing curtains of the same was over the wedding party, and white satin ribbons relieved the green. About the room white carnations and ferns were used, and the same also appeared in the dining-room, where a supper was served. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family, the wedding was very quiet, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. The bride was attired in a dainty gown of white tulle with a wide train, and was drawn with, and medallions of that work set in the large fluffy sleeves and yoke and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. After a short wedding tour they will be at home at No. 1406 South Union avenue.

Monthly Luncheon.

The members of the Woman's Press Club of Southern California enjoyed their annual luncheon at the Nadro yesterday. During the function, Miss Heloise Desrie Coutelane entertained the guests with a number of violin selections. Covers were laid for Mrs. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Mary Bowman, Mrs. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Bertha Hirsch Baruch, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Louise George, Mrs. Hattie Hone, Mrs. Everett, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Goe and Mr. and Mrs. Du Bois; Misses Helen Devie, Helen Cook, Ruth Comfort Mitchell, Heloise Desrie Coutelane, Fette, Faelelin Lampadius and Katherine Thompson.

Greek Letter Dinner.

The Gamma Rho Tau Club was entertained Saturday afternoon at a Spanish dinner at the home of Miss Louise Alexander, at No. 1648 Girard street. Hearts was enjoyed. The score cards were decorated with garlands and hearts, the handwork of the hostess. The prize was won by Miss Grace Mohler. Covers were laid for ten, only a few intimate friends and relatives tied with ribbons of green and white, the club colors. Among those attending were Estelle Graham, Riba Hull, May Shewsbury, Mary Campbell, Evelyn Alexander, Ora Reavis and Olive Horton.

Echo Park Club.

A party was given by the Echo Park Social Club Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. Scott at No. 1142 Lamoine street. Music, singing and dancing were among the items. Perhaps, the most notable feature of the evening was the garden, which was decorated with numerous Chinese lanterns.

Interesting Musicals.

Mrs. W. F. Botsford of No. 1213 Orange street was the hostess yesterday at a charming musical. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edwin Talbot of Boston, Mrs. Modlin-Wood, Miss Elizabeth Walters and Miss Helen Klock. Punch was served by three pretty girls in light gowns. They were Miss Elsie Laux, Miss Juliette Phelps and Miss Elizabeth Botsford. The spacious hall of the Botsford home was transformed into a music room, and under the direction of Miss Botsford, elaborate decorations were arranged. Eucalyptus with the fluffy red blossoms was displayed effectively and great jars of Mallie's poppies, together with many potted plants made an attractive finish. The other rooms were festooned with asparagus plumosus, and here and there a few bright blossoms gave a touch of grace. The programme presented included vocal numbers by Mrs. Otis Spencer of Denver and Mrs. Mary Linde Evans. The second part consisted of "Enoch Arden," with the setting by Strauss. Miss Letitia Lewis read, while Mrs. Botsford presided at the piano, and rendered the difficult composition with rare feeling and fine touch. Mrs. Botsford entertained about a hundred guests.

Flinch Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fawcett at No. 1425 West Sixth street was the scene of a flinch party Saturday evening. Several of the guests gave musical numbers. Those present were Miss Morrell, Miss Julia Morrell, Miss Katharine Morrell, Miss Rivers, Miss Mattie Elory, Miss Grace Kennedy, Miss Anna Botsford, Miss Edith Alexander, Miss Rohn, Miss Bailey, Walter Fah, James White, John Wright, Will Henson, Rev. and Mrs. Charles D. Scott, J. Earhart Essie, Mr. Alexander and Mr. Newark.

Home Affair.

Miss Bertha Scott and Herbert Clinton Jones were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles D. Scott, at No. 221 West Fifteenth street. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. C. C. Fisher, pastor of Central Methodist Episcopal Church, in which the young people are actively associated. The wedding march was played by Miss Nellie Liscomb, during which the bride party advanced to a canopy of asparagus plumosus, from which were suspended a chime of wedding bells tied with a bow of illusion, and fern balls decorated with pink sweet peas. The bride wore a gown of white net over silk, trimmed with deep flounces of Chantilly lace and bands of chiffon veil.

MRS. FRANK SIMMONDS.

young couple's heads a canopy was formed of asparagus plumosus, and white carnations were enmeshed in the strands, while a touch of delicate piny gave a bit of color in the scheme. French baskets filled with snowy carnations swung beneath the arches, and fern balls added to the cool effect produced. The music which accompanied the service was under the direction of Harry Wood, who rendered the two marches, and before the service Paul Pinner sang "Changeless." The petite little brunette bride wore a handsome creation of white crepe de chine with a wide berth of hand-made Duchesse lace, and short puffy sleeves finished with long drooping ruffles of chiffon. The skirt was made with wide tucks, and full ruffles of chiffon. An 1899 article was a quaint accessory to the dainty toilette. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, and a veil of imported tulle fell over her face, caught with a cluster of orange blossoms. On her hand she wore a ring which was a gift of the groom's father, and it was particularly interesting since it was set with an Indian rubies and came all the way from India in a tiny box made of a nut shell and carved in a most intricate design. Miss Estelle Cridland was maid of honor, and as she is in August to become the bride of Abbott Spierock, considerable interest attaches to her. Miss Cridland wore a becoming gown of white mull made with four or five ruffles up the skirt in the old style, and trimmed with billowy fluffs of Valenciennes lace. She carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids wore Misses Helen Mathewson, Zaldie Hartwell and May Pirtle. They all were dressed alike in simple little frocks of white oramide over tulle, and carried pink carnations. The bride was given away by her father. The long Episcopal service was performed. The best man was Harry Simmonds and the ushers were Fred and C. Elton Phelps, brothers of the bride, and Abbott Spierock.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, and here an artistic arrangement of yellow and white prevailed. In the center of the table a great bowl of California poppies, white carnations rested upon a centerpiece embroidered in poppies. White ribbons over the table formed a canopy, while delicate ferns wound gracefully over the bows and down the sides.

Both young people are well known in the city. The bride is particularly pretty and attractive. The groom is connected with a local lumber company. Mr. and Mrs. Simmonds have been married for the North where they will spend several weeks. They will be at home after August 1 in the bungalow at No. 2625 Flower street, which the groom has erected for his bride.

Shirt Waist Dance.

The members of the Westlake Tennis Club entertained friends with a shirt-waist dance last evening at Kramer's Hall. He said that not all the fair maids were in shirt waists, but there seemed to prevail more of the demure "1899" girls than ever, and the committee in charge of arrangements rested upon Harbe, Hook, Leslie Henry, Bert Travers, Adolph Schwartz, Tom Brown, Frank Woodbury and Bernal Dwyer.
